General Rules

For the Government of Prisoners.

Your attention is directed to the following rules. Only by observing and obeying them can you make a good record as a prisoner and become eligible for parole and the diminution of your sentence which the law allows:

I. Your first duty is strict obedience to all rules, regulations and orders of the officer under whose charge you may be placed.

II. You must observe strict silence in all departments of the prison and while marching through the yard.

III. You must not speak to, give or receive from visitors anything except by permission of the Warden or Deputy. Gazing at visitors or strangers passing through the prison is strictly forbidden.

IV. You are expected to apply yourself diligently to whatever labor you are assigned and after reasonable teaching to perform the same amount of work as would be required from you as a citizen.

V. At every signal to fall in for marching take your place in line promptly. March with military step, attend to and promptly obey the orders of your officer.

VI. You will be required to keep your person clean and your clothing tidy and in good order. You must not make any alterations in your clothing or cut your shoes; if they do not fit or need repairs report the fact to your officer. You must not carry knives, tools of any kind, pencils, paper or any material whatever from your shop to your cell without permission in writing from the Warden or Deputy. Finding any of these things in your possession will be considered proof that you have violated this rule. Tinkering or writing notes to other convicts or carrying notes from one convict to another is strictly forbidden.

VII. You are not allowed to have any money on your person or in your possession, neither are you permitted to trade nor purchase any article whatever. All of your business must be done through the Warden.

VIII. You must approach an officer in a respectful manner. Always salute him before speaking. You must confine your conversation with him strictly to the business in hand. You must not address an officer on matters outside the prison. Insolence in any form to an officer, foreman or even to a fellow convict will not be tolerated.

IX. On entering the cellhouse, office of the Board of Control, Warden or Deputy, you must uncover unless your duties are such that you have special permission to remain covered.

X. You are not compelled to attend religious service, but you are specially requested to do so believing that the moral support of religious instruction is necessary for all.

XI. You are required to bathe once a week, and oftener if considered necessary, unless excused by the prison Physician, the Warden or Deputy.

XII. On entering the prison you will receive three tickets entitling you to the following privileges as long as you obey strictly all of the rules of the prison:

First.—One ration of tobacco each week.

Second.—Permission to write under grade rules.

Third.—Permission to see friends once in four weeks.

NEWSPAPERS. You are permitted to receive such weekly papers as the Warden may approve. No daily papers or sensational publications of any description will be admitted.

EXTRA LETTERS. Written permission must be obtained from the Warden or Deputy in case it becomes necessary to write special letters.

MAIL MATTER. Letters and papers of every description must be examined at the office under the direction of the Warden, before being mailed or delivered.

Shop Rules.

I. On entering the shop you will take off your coat, put on your apron and get at your work promptly. If you have any causes for complaint against keeper, foreman or others, you will be allowed to send application for an interview through your officer at any time to the Board of Control, Warden or Deputy.

II. Communication between prisoners is strictly prohibited and will not be allowed at any time except by special permission of the officers in charge and then only when absolutely necessary.

III. In talking with your foreman you are required to confine yourself strictly to your shop duties. You will not be allowed to talk with him upon matters pertaining to outside news.

IV. You will be required to approach your officer in a respectful manner. Always salute him before addressing him and make your wants known as briefly as possible.

V. You will be required to give your individual attention to your work. Gazing about, at visitors passing through the shop or at other prisoners, will not be allowed. You must respectfully listen to and faithfully carry out all instructions given to you by your foreman pertaining to your work.

VI. You will not be allowed to leave your place of work except by permission of the officer in charge.

VII. You will not be allowed to brush against a fellow convict in passing, to get in each other's way or otherwise trespass upon the rights of each other so as to provoke ill feeling.

VIII. Careless or willful injury to your work or tools will be promptly reported.

IX. You must always salute an officer on entering or retiring from your shop. You will not be permitted to leave shop or place of work under any circumstances, without first obtaining special permission of the officer in charge.

X. If you are sick or unable to work report the fact to your officer and act as he may direct. If you desire to see the physician give your name to your officer immediately after entering the shop in the morning.

XI. All trading or bartering of whatsoever kind between prisoners or between citizens and prisoners, is strictly prohibited. You will not be allowed to give or receive any present or gift from a foreman or citizen under any condition.

XII. If it becomes necessary to use a lead pencil about your work, apply to your officer who will supply you. Pencil must invariably be returned to the officer every evening. You will not be allowed to cut off or appropriate any part of pencil.

Cellhouse Rules.

I. At the sound of the morning gong you must turn out promptly, wash, dress, clean your cuspidor, make up your bed neatly as instructed, and be ready to march out. At the signal open the door, step out, close the door without slamming, form in line as directed, and stand erect with pail in right hand until ordered to march.

II. Upon entering the cellhouse at noon, march to the dining room. After dinner march promptly to your cell. Close door after you without slamming, and remain standing with your right hand on the door until the count is made. When count is correct you will be notified by the sound of the gong.

III. Upon entering the cellhouse in the evening you will take your meal at the entrance and go to your cell promptly. You will remain standing with your hand on door until the double count is made, of which you will be notified by sound of gong same as at noon.

IV. You will be required to keep your library books and cell furniture clean and in good order. Marking the walls, spitting on the cell floor, corridors or flags, will not be allowed. You will be permitted two library books each week. When change of book is desired place library slip on cell door evening before issue.

V. You will be required to place your writing and tobacco tickets on cell door immediately after breakfast Sunday mornings (in plain view) otherwise these privileges will be withheld. You must return all writing material given you, whether used or not. Failure to do this will deprive you of your writing privilege.

VI. You must not keep food in your cell except evening lunch which you are allowed to bring from dining room on Sundays and holidays. Immediately after supper you will be required to place any bread left on the crossbar of your cell door to be gathered up by waiter. You must not throw any food in your night bucket.

VII. You will be required to scour your cups and wash-basin and keep them bright and clean and in their proper place at all times. You must make up your bed neatly and carefully according to instructions. Lounging upon your bed during noon hour is strictly forbidden.

VIII. Strict silence must be observed in your cell at all times. Talking, laughing, reading aloud, shuffling of feet, drawing chair or night bucket across cell floor or talking from cell to cell is strictly prohibited. You must not tamper with your electric light. If it does not burn properly report the fact to the officer on duty.

IX. You are entitled to the following cell furniture: 1 Bible, 2 cups, 1 mirror, 1 cuspidor, 1 spoon, 1 face towel, 1 dish towel, 1 piece laundry soap, 1 comb, blankets, sheets, pillowcases, mattress, bedstead and springs, 1 wooden chair in first and second grade, 1 earthern water jar with cover, 1 electric light, 1 small library shelf, 1 library catalogue and all the library and school books required.

X. All prisoners attending school will be required to give close attention to their studies in the schoolroom and in their cell through the entire term of eight months commencing September 15th, and ending April 15th, of each year unless excused by the Warden or Physician.

XI. At the sound of the gong three times at 9 p.m., you must undress quietly and immediately retire. If you have occasion to call the night officer tap on the cell door lightly, but this privilege must not be used unless really necessary.

Dining Hall Rules.

I. On entering the dining hall take your seat promptly—position erect—arms folded with eyes to the front until the signal is given to commence eating.

II. Strict silence must be observed during the meal. Staring at visitors, talking and laughing, fooling or gazing about the room is strictly forbidden.

III. Eating or drinking before or after the gong sounds, using vinegar in your drinking water, or putting meat on the table is prohibited.

IV. Should you desire additional food make your wants known to the waiters in the following manner:

If you want bread, hold up your right hand.

Coffee or water, hold up your cup.

Meat, hold up your fork.

Soup, hold up your spoon.

Vegetables, hold up your knife.

If you desire to speak to an officer about food or service in dining hall hold up your left hand.

V. Wasting food in any form will not be tolerated. You must not ask for or allow waiter to place on your plate more food than you can eat. When through with meal leave pieces of bread unmussed on left side of plate. Crusts and small pieces of bread must not be left on your plate.

VI. After finishing your meal place knife, fork and spoon on right side of plate. Sit erect with arms folded. When the signal is given to arise, drop hands to your side. At the second signal of the gong march out and to your respective places in line in a prompt, quiet and orderly manner.

VII. In passing to and from the dining hall you must not gaze into cells or loiter on the gallery. Walk erect with your eyes to the front. It is strictly against the rules to carry out any of the dining hall furnishings or to carry food to or from the dining hall at any time except on Sundays and holidays when you will be allowed to carry lunch to your cell for the evening meal.

Chapel Rules.

---

I. On entering the chapel you will march erect with arms by your side keeping step with the music.

II. You will take your seat promptly as designated by the officers in charge and sit with arms folded during chapel service.

III. The signal for rising and being seated will be the sound of the Deputy Warden's gavel. When this signal is given you will rise promptly and remain standing until notified to be seated. You will be allowed to drop arms to your side while standing.

IV. Strict attention must be given to the service. You must not gaze about the room at visitors or at fellow convicts, but must sit erect in your seat facing the speaker.

V. Reading, spitting on the floor, shuffling of the feet or any other unnecessary noise is strictly forbidden.

VI. Should you be taken sick during service or it becomes necessary for you to retire, raise your right hand to the officer in charge who will excuse you if necessary.

VII. After service you will sit erect with arms folded giving strict attention to your officer until he gives the signal to rise when you will be required to rise promptly and march out of the chapel as directed, keeping time with the music.

VIII. In marching to and from the chapel you will be required to keep in close order with face to the front and in as quiet and orderly manner as possible.

Any willful violation of these rules will be promptly reported, and severely punished if necessary to enforce compliance.

The Prison Agent.

Rules and Regulations for the Government of the State Agent of the Minnesota State Prison and State Reformatory.

SECTION 1. The Agent in the performance of his duties shall be under the direction of the Warden of the prison and the Superintendent of the reformatory.

SECTION 2. It shall be his duty to procure suitable situations for all discharged and paroled prisoners from the State prison and reformatory who cannot obtain suitable situations for themselves or through their friends. It shall also be his duty to make careful investigations of all situations procured by prisoners or their friends, and ascertain whether they are suitable.

SECTION 3. In procuring or investigating situations the Agent shall, at all times, have in view the morals of the community, the surroundings to which the men will be subjected, and whether they are adapted to perform the services that will be required of them.

SECTION 4. He shall at the end of each month report in writing to the Warden of the State prison and Superintendent of the reformatory the number of prisoners for whom he has found employment who have been paroled or discharged from each institution. In this report shall be given in detail the name of each prisoner for whom work is obtained—the name of his employer—the kind of labor the prisoner is engaged in—the amount of compensation he is receiving, and what his surroundings are. Whether or not he is keeping away from saloons and bad company, together with such other facts as may be thought of value for the guidance of the Board in the management of those under their custody. In order to make such report as is hereby required, it shall be the duty of the State Agent to require a written report from each prisoner on parole, certified to by his employer setting forth the aforementioned facts. A duplicate of this report, in all cases, must be sent by the prisoner directly to the Warden or Superintendent of the institution from which the prisoner was paroled. All such reports must be filed together with a report from the Agent with the Warden and Superintendent by the 28th day of each month.

SECTION 5. The Agent shall investigate all grievances of discharged or paroled prisoners pertaining to their discharge from or inability to fill situations procured for them, and shall see that they are protected and that they get what is justly their due. If, in the opinion of the Agent, it is for the best interests of the paroled prisoner to change his work or location, he shall report the fact to the Warden or Superintendent and act as he may direct. But when the nature of the case is such that it will not admit of delay he shall make such changes as in his best judgment are necessary, subject to the approval of the Warden or Superintendent to whom he shall immediately report. In the event of a prisoner breaking his parole, the State Agent shall have authority to arrest and return the prisoner to the institution from which he or she was paroled.

SECTION 6. The Warden of the prison and Superintendent of the reformatory shall furnish the Agent with the names of all prisoners for whom employment is wanted, their record, physical and mental condition, trade, etc., together with any other information which might aid the Agent in procuring suitable situations, a reasonable length of time before the prisoner's release.

SECTION 7. The Agent shall have access to the State prison and reformatory and shall visit each of these institutions at least once every month and see such prisoners before their release and ascertain personally from them their qualifications and wishes as to their future occupation.

SECTION 8. The Agent shall maintain supervision over discharged and paroled prisoners for whom he has found employment, until their final discharge, and shall maintain temporary supervision as far as practicable over all prisoners aided by him, and shall embody the results of such supervision in his monthly reports.

SECTION 9. In order to supply himself with the necessary assistance to successfully forward the work placed in his charge the Agent shall invite the co-operation of the public press and the clergyman of the state, and such other persons as are especially interested in the reformation of prisoners. He shall have an office in the Capitol, and as far as practicable have regular days when he can be found there. Aside from the time he is necessarily at his office and at the prison and reformatory, he shall be moving about the state from place to place where paroled prisoners are located, making himself thoroughly acquainted with the conditions and surroundings of each one. He shall keep a daily record of his observations and a list of the people he meets who are willing to aid him in his work. He shall furnish a copy of his diary, so kept, to the Warden and Superintendent as a part of his regular monthly reports.

SECTION 10. The Agent shall be subject to suspension by the Warden and Superintendent for misconduct and inefficiency pending action by the Board of Control.

Restoration of Citizenship.

A convict who shall pass the entire period of his imprisonment without a violation of the rules and discipline, except such as the Warden or Board of Control shall excuse, shall upon his discharge from the prison be restored to the rights and privileges forfeited by his conviction, and shall receive from the Governor a certificate under the great seal of the State as evidence of such restoration, to be issued upon presentation to the Governor of a certificate of such conduct, which shall be furnished to such convict by the Warden.

Rules for the Parole and Grading System.

---

Established by Act of the Minnesota Legislature March 27, 1893. Revised 1905.

Chapter 105 of the Revised Laws for 1905.

SECTION 20. SENTENCE UPON REFORMATORY PLAN.—Whenever any person not less than seventeen nor more than thirty years old, who has never been sentenced to a state prison or reformatory, is convicted of an offense punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, the court, in its discretion, may sentence him to the state prison in like manner and on like conditions as are provided for sentence to the reformatory, designating the sentence to be upon the reformatory plan; and in such cases paroles and releases shall be granted upon the same terms and conditions as from the reformatory. ('94, s. 7507.)

SECTION 21. PAROLE OF PRISONERS.—The State Board of Control may parole any prisoner: Provided,

1. No convict shall be paroled who has previously been convicted of a felony other than the one for which he is serving sentence, either in this state or elsewhere.

2. No convict serving a time sentence shall be paroled until he shall have served at least one-half of his full term, not reckoning good time.

3. No convict serving a life sentence shall be paroled until he has served thirty-five years, less the diminution which would have been allowed for good conduct had his sentence been for thirty-five years, and then only by unanimous consent, in writing, of the members of the Board of Pardons.

4. Such convicts while on parole shall remain in the legal custody and under control of the Board of Control, subject at any time to be returned to the prison or reformatory, and the written order of said Board, certified by the Warden, shall be a sufficient warrant to any officer to retake and return to actual custody any such convict. Geographical limits wholly within the state may be fixed in each case, and the same enlarged or reduced according to the conduct of the prisoners.

5. In considering applications for parole said board shall not entertain any petition, receive any written communication, or hear any argument from any attorney or other person not connected with said prison, in favor of the parole of any prisoner, but it may institute inquiries by correspondence or otherwise as to the previous history or character of such prisoner. ('94, s. 7510; '01, c. 232.)

The Grading Rules.

SECTION 1. The Board of Control, by virtue of the authority and power conferred upon them by Section 5 of an Act of the Minnesota Legislature, entitled "An Act to regulate the sentencing of prisoners convicted of felony and their subsequent release on parole" hereby establish three (3) grades of prisoners to be known and designated as the First, Second and Third Grades, together with a system of marks to be governed by the following rules and regulations, which shall be in force and have effect from and after the official notification of the passage of said Act as certified by the Secretary of State under date of April 5th, 1893.

All prisoners on arrival shall be entered in the Second Grade; they may earn nine credit marks each month and shall be marked on conduct, work, and mental advancement. Promotion from the Second to the First Grade shall be conditioned upon the earning of Fifty (50) out of the possible Fifty-four (54) credit marks within six (6) consecutive months. The loss of more than two (2) marks in any one month, shall cause the prisoner so offending to be reduced to the next lower grade. By a clear record of one (1) month and the earning of nine (9) credit marks, the prisoner shall be advanced to the next upper grade.

Prisoners may lose their grades:

First. By such violations of Prison Rules as shall necessarily subject them to solitary confinement.

Second. For general disorderly conduct.

Third. For habitual laziness, untidiness, or negligence.

SECTION 2. FIRST GRADE.—First Grade men shall be dressed in a gray uniform and be entitled to the following privileges: To eat in a dining room, to be known and designated as a First Grade dining room, of which the table service and variety of food shall be distinctive features; to write one letter each week; receive visits from friends once in four weeks; to receive such letters and weekly papers as the Warden may approve, and from time to time such other and additional privileges and immunities not herein enumerated, as may be considered safe to concede, as a special reward for meritorious conduct, having in view at all times the best interests of discipline and good order.

SECOND GRADE.—Second Grade men shall be dressed in a plaid suit and be entitled to the following privileges: To take their meals in a dining room to be known and designated as a Second Grade dining room. The service and variety of food shall not be as great as that allowed in the First Grade dining room, still, it shall have, as a special distinctive feature, a greater variety of food and better service than that allowed Third Grade men. To receive visits from friends once a month; to receive such letters and weekly papers as the Warden may approve; to write once in two weeks.

THIRD GRADE.—Third Grade men shall be dressed in striped clothing; they shall be allowed to have in their respective cells a Bible, a library catalogue and one good selected library book each week. All Third Grade prisoners shall be deprived of the following privileges allowed to other grades: To receive visits from friends or write or receive letters except on matters of the greatest importance, and then only by permission of the Warden; they shall not be allowed to receive newspapers or tobacco, nor to take their meals in the dining room, but shall be obliged to occupy and take their meals in cells set aside and designated as Third Grade cells; their food shall be plentiful and substantial but very plain and of less variety than that allowed Second Grade men; they shall not receive any outside news of any kind, except by permission of the Warden; and they may be further deprived of such other privileges from time to time, as may be considered for the best interests of the grading and parole system.

SECTION 3. At the discretion of the Board of Control, any prisoner who shall show a perfect record for six months after entering the Second Grade, may be considered as of the First Grade from the time he entered the prison.

SECTION 4. The Warden shall submit to the Board of Control each month, at its regular meeting, a report in writing, showing the grade changes for the month, giving the names of all prisoners with the dates upon which they were degraded or promoted in their respective grades, and such other information as may be considered necessary to give the Board a more perfect knowledge of the discipline and general management of the prison.

Good Time Law.

Chapter 105 of the Revised Laws for 1905.

DIMINUTION OF SENTENCE.—Every convict sentenced for a definite term other than life may diminish such term as follows:

1. For each month, commencing on the day of his arrival, during which he has not violated any prison rule or discipline, and has labored with diligence and fidelity, five days.

2. After one year of such conduct, seven days for each month.
3. After two years of such conduct, nine days for each month.
4. After three years, ten days for each month for the entire time thereafter.

Said Board, in view of the aggravated nature and frequency of offenses, may take away any or all of the good time previously gained, and, in consideration of mitigating circumstances or ignorance on the part of the convict, may afterwards restore him, in whole or in part, to the standing he possessed before such good time was taken away. Whenever a convict shall pass the entire period of his imprisonment without an unexcused violation of the rules or discipline, upon his discharge he shall be restored to his rights and privileges forfeited by conviction, and receive from the Governor a certificate, under the seal of the State, as evidence of such restoration. ('94, s. 7489.)

Discharge Allowance.

Chapter 105 of the Revised Laws for 1905.

Upon discharge the Warden, at the expense of the State, shall furnish each convict released with one good serviceable suit of clothing and under-clothing, and, when released between October 1 and March 31 following, with a good, serviceable overcoat; and he shall pay to each convict, when released, $25 in money drawn from the current expense fund. ('94, ss. 7474, 7475; '97, c. 243.)

---

Board of Pardons.

Chapter 104 of the Revised Laws for 1905.

HOW CONSTITUTED—POWERS.—The Board of Pardons shall consist of the Governor, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and the Attorney General. Said Board may grant pardons and reprieves and commute the sentence of any person convicted of any offense against the laws of the State, in the manner and under the conditions and regulations hereinafter prescribed, but not otherwise. ('97, c. 23, s. 1.)

PARDONS—REPRIEVES—UNANIMOUS VOTE.—Such Board may grant an absolute or conditional pardon, but every conditional pardon shall state the terms and conditions upon which it was granted. A reprieve in a case where capital punishment has been imposed may be granted by any member of the Board, but for such time only as may be reasonably necessary to secure a meeting for the consideration of an application for pardon or commutation of sentence. Every pardon or commutation of sentence shall be in writing, and shall have no force or effect unless granted by a unanimous vote of the Board duly convened. ('97, c. 23, s. 2.)

WARRANT—RETURN.—Such Board may issue its warrant under its seal to any proper officer to carry into effect any pardon, commutation, or reprieve. As soon as may be after the execution of the warrant, the officer to whom it is directed shall make return thereof, under his hand, with his doings thereon, to the Governor. Such officer shall also file with the clerk of the court in which the offender was convicted an attested copy of the warrant and return, a brief abstract of which such clerk shall subjoin to the record of the conviction. ('97, c. 23, ss. 2, 3.)

MEETINGS.—The Board shall hold regular meetings on the second Monday in January, April, July, and October of each year, and such other meetings as it shall deem expedient, and all shall be held in the executive chamber in the state capitol, or at such other place as may be ordered by the Board. ('97, c. 23, s. 4.)

APPLICATION FOR PARDON.—Every application for a pardon or commutation of sentence shall be in writing, addressed to the Board of Pardons, signed by the convict or someone in his behalf, shall state concisely the grounds upon which the pardon or commutation is sought, and in addition shall contain the following facts:

1. The name under which the convict was indicted, and every alias by which he has been known.
2. The date and terms of sentence, and the names of the offense for which it was imposed.
3. The name of the trial judge and of the county attorney who participated in the trial of the convict, together with that of the county in which he was tried.
4. A succinct statement of the evidence adduced at the trial, with the indorsement of the judge or county attorney who tried the case that the same is substantially correct. If such statement and indorsement are not furnished, the reason thereof shall be stated.
5. The age, birthplace, parentage, and occupation and residence of convict during five years immediately preceding conviction.
6. A statement of other arrests, indictments, and convictions, if any, of the convict. ('97, c. 23, s. 5.)

ACTION UPON APPLICATION.—Every such application shall be filed with the clerk of the board. But if an application for a pardon or commutation has been once heard and denied on the merits, no subsequent application shall be filed without the consent of two members of the Board indorsed thereon. Said clerk shall, immediately on receipt of any application, mail notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, to the judge of the court wherein the applicant was tried and sentenced, and to the prosecuting attorney who prosecuted the applicant, or his successor in office: Provided, that pardons or commutations of sentence of persons committed to a county jail or workhouse may be granted by said Board without notice. ('97, c. 23, s. 6.)

RECORDS—SEAL—ADDITIONAL POWERS—CLERK.—The Board shall keep a record of every petition received, and of every pardon, reprieve, or commutation of sentence granted or refused, and the reasons assigned therefor and shall have a seal, with which every pardon, reprieve, or commutation of sentence shall be attested. It may adopt such additional necessary and proper rules and regulations as are not inconsistent herewith. The Governor's private secretary, or, in his absence, the executive clerk, shall be the clerk of the Board, and shall keep the records and perform the duties herein required of him, and such other duties as the Board may prescribe, without other compensation. The records and all files shall be kept and preserved in the office of the Governor, and shall be open to public inspection at all reasonable times. ('97, c. 23, ss. 5-7, 8.)

ISSUANCE OF PROCESS—WITNESSES—APPROPRIATION.—The Board may issue process requiring the presence of any person or officer before it, with or without books and papers, in any matter pending, and may take such reasonable steps in the matter as it may deem necessary to a proper determination thereof. Whenever any person is summoned before the Board by its authority, he may be allowed such compensation for travel and attendance as it may deem reasonable. The sum of $300 is hereby appropriated annually for carrying out the provisions of this subdivision. ('97, c. 23, ss. 8, 9.)

Add Eight Months for Every Subsequent Year.

Rules Governing the Librarian.

It is the duty, and the librarian and his assistant are hereby instructed that the following rules are in force from this date and must hereafter be carefully followed:

All books must be catalogued before issue. All magazines and periodicals that may come to the library will be carefully checked and safely held there until instructions have been given for their disposal either by the Warden, the Deputy Warden, or the Cellhouse Keeper.

All state magazines, and magazines contributed, shall hereafter be issued from the library under the instruction of the Warden, or the Deputy Warden, and always under the direction of the Cellhouse Keeper. These magazines shall be issued under the following conditions, viz:

The Cellhouse Keeper shall provide a list of prisoners to whom the magazines shall be first issued and may be retained for three days, after which they will be returned to the magazine box provided as a receptacle to receive them. The librarian shall take charge of them, check them up, examining each magazine to see if it has been properly used, and then remark for another distribution. This process is to continue as long as it shall be decided to keep the magazines in circulation.

When withdrawn from circulation the librarian shall check up each number and see that they have been properly and safely returned without ill-usage, and receive instructions as to the number that shall be classified for the bindery.

The Keeper of the Cellhouse shall see that magazines are sent to the bindery and properly accounted for, and from there checked back into the library for circulation, after the volumes have been bound.

It shall be the duty of the librarian to report any defacing, marking or cutting of magazines, and the Cellhouse Keeper shall report all such abuses.

Any improper use or abuse of magazines will deprive the offender of library privileges, and if wilfully done will be followed by severe punishment.

All library books must be carefully examined when returned to the library, and it shall be the duty of the librarian to report to the Cellhouse Keeper any marking, cutting, tearing, soiling or any other misuse or rough handling of library books, (natural wear and tear excepted) and by the Cellhouse Keeper reported in the ordinary way.

Any improper use of library books will subject the offender to the withholding of library privileges, and if wilfully done will result in severe punishment.

It shall be the duty of the librarian, under the direction of the Cellhouse Keeper, to keep a list of all prisoners in the library who shall have, from time to time, been deprived of library privileges, giving the date of the deprivation and date when again restored.

Library Rules.

In ordering books the following directions must be carefully adhered to:

Write plainly upon your library slip your name and cell number. Underneath place the numbers of fifteen or twenty books you prefer to read.

Always take your library book with you when moving from one cell to another. Bear in mind that all books are charged to you and that you will be held strictly responsible for their preservation and return. Catalogue and all books charged to you must be accounted for on the day of your parole or discharge from prison.

You will not be allowed to have a library book in your possession or in your cell except those that have been regularly charged up and come to you through the regular channels. If you find a stray book in your cell you must turn it over to the Librarian at once. Failing to do this, the finding a stray library book in your cell, will be the means of depriving you of all library privileges.

You are accorded the utmost liberty in the selection of your reading matter, but it is hoped and it will be expected by the management that the library record will show that you have exercised due diligence and regard for your own best interests in the selection of books. The Warden, Chaplain, Teachers or other officers will gladly advise you concerning the proper selection of reading matter.

All library books, excepting books of reference, may be retained two weeks. Books of reference may be held but one day.

RULES FOR EXCHANGING PAPERS.

Any prisoner wishing to exchange papers or periodicals with other prisoners may do so by observing the following rules:

Mark the numbers of the cells to which you wish to send the paper or periodical plainly on the margin thereof, and drop it in the exchange box at the foot of the stairs as you go out with your bucket in the morning.

After reading papers sent to you, scratch your number out and replace papers in the exchange box the following morning, but do not add any numbers to the list nor erase any but your own.

Weekly and semi-weekly publications circulate ten days from the date of their issue; monthly publications circulate during the month of their issue.

Writing on, drawing pictures on, or in any way defacing exchanges is forbidden. Papers must be kept as clean as possible.

LIBRARY SLIPS.

The library slips are taken up by the night guards on the following evenings: On galleries one and two, Wednesday and Saturday. On number three gallery, Monday and Thursday. On number four, five and six galleries, Tuesday and Friday. The slips should be placed upon the crossbar of your door, on the nights designated, before the gong rings to retire.
